1.5" Analog Gauge

Machining Changes

Changes to the form of the 1.5" Analog Gauge series have been made to promote consistency between the analog and Bluetooth models.

These changes are cosmetic and enhance the user experience.

There is no change to the function of this product series.

PREVIOUS DESIGN
THROUGH 4/2022

The previous design contains a plain cap and a product information label on the gauge body.

UPDATED DESIGN
BEGINNING 5/2022

The updated design features a single product information label with serial number on the cap, protected by a recessed label pocket.
